

Biography of Glenda R. Snodgrass

Glenda R. Snodgrass has been President, lead consultant and project manager at The Net Effect since the company's inception in 1996.

Ms. Snodgrass is primarily engaged in cyber security training, threat analysis and mitigation for commercial, non-profit and governmental organizations. In addition to conducting security-related workshops, corporate training and delivering cyber security defense presentations at professional conferences and conventions, she spends time drafting network security procedures and developing employee security awareness training programs for clients.

A frequent contributor to Tripwire's The State of Security blog and Business View magazine, she also provides expert witness testimony in technology-related court cases. Her dynamic personality and effective teaching style have made her a sought-after public speaker and corporate trainer for more than twenty years.

Currently President of Gulf Coast Industrial Security Awareness Council, member of the steering committee for Gulf Coast Technology Council, and serving on the Board of Directors of the Mobile Area Chamber of Commerce. Ms. Snodgrass is also an active member of InfraGard and a 2018 graduate of the FBI Citizens' Academy. She holds a B.A. from the University of South Alabama (1986) and a maîtrise from Université de Paris I - Panthéon-Sorbonne in Paris, France (1989).

Comments on Ms. Snodgrass' Presentations

Thanks to Glenda's training, our employees are actually getting excited about security.

Christopher Burns, INFOSEC Director, The SSI Group

Glenda has a gift for presenting information in a way that anyone can understand.

Brent Hutfless, IT Security Director, Windcreek Hospitality

Glenda was the mostly highly praised CLE at our annual meeting.

Christina L. Butler, Director
External Relations & Annual Meeting, Alabama State Bar

Every year the Redstone OPSEC Committee searches for dynamic speakers, and I can say that Ms. Snodgrass truly "hit it out of the ball park" with her briefing on Social Engineering Defense at Team Redstone OPSEC Day 2016. Attendees' comments were universally positive.

Morris Burbank, Security Specialist
OPSEC Officer, Redstone Arsenal

Glenda was wonderful! Her briefing was very informative and she had large groups of ship yard workers hanging on her every word -- no small task. We received lots of fantastic feedback. VTHM Security hopes we are able to bring her back for more employee training in the future.

Phyllis Denomy,
Industrial Security Manager
VT Halter Marine

Glenda is a wonderful speaker - very lively and enthusiastic about her topic - keeping the audience's interest and attention. She keeps abreast of the times with up-to-date technical information that is useful to any type of business.

Linda Steele
Government Finance Officers Association of Alabama
& Association of Certified Fraud Examiners

Glenda is an engaging and dynamic speaker! She shared the latest information on cybersecurity threats and offered lots of practical advice to the audience on protecting their online identities and good cyber hygiene.

Comments on Ms. Snodgrass' Presentations

My task as a committee member was to line up speakers that could provide relative informative information to fellow NCMS Members. Glenda Snodgrass came highly recommended so I wasted no time contacting her and confirming her a spot. We looked forward to meeting Glenda and hearing her speak. Boy, did she not disappoint! Her presentation was energetic and packed with useful, eye-opening information that every NCMS member could take back to their facility to protect against cyber intrusions, for both business and personal security.

Caty Savage
Emerald Coast NCMS Committee Member -Programs

The presentation by The Net Effect's Glenda Snodgrass to our organization's annual meeting was the absolute best continuing education presentation at the meeting. This is not mere hyperbole. I had the opportunity to introduce Ms. Snodgrass and observe the entirety of her presentation. She was interesting and engaging. The subject was timely, and was of critical importance to every attendee. She spoke for an hour, and the group would have continued asking her questions if she had stayed for three hours. No one left the presentation. Afterward, several - more than ten - attendees sought me out to make sure I knew that they wanted her to come back next year for the annual meeting. I would recommend Ms. Snodgrass to any organization.

Richard J. R. Raleigh Jr., President
Alabama State Bar

As the saying goes, "Anyone who is not a little paranoid is not sufficiently informed." Glenda gave our audience a healthy dose of needed paranoia on a subject critically important to lawyers who care about protecting client information and confidential communications. She is smart, articulate and knows her stuff. We have hosted her twice and hope to arrange for a third jolt of her hard-hitting, informed reality.

Roy D. Campbell, III, President
The Mississippi Bar
